The Triangle African American History Colloquium presents
A Conversation with Participants in Breaking New Ground an Innovative Oral History Project that documents the history of black farm owners

Friday, November 18th, 4:00 p.m.
Hamilton Hall, Room 569 (UNC-Chapel Hill)

Funded by the National Endowment of the Humanities in collaboration with the Southern Oral History Program
Image courtesy of the Library of Congress